

GUESTHOUSE UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Until autumn 2022, our guesthouse will be renovated to enhance energy efficiency. Balconies will be mounted on the east- and west-side; furthermore an emergency exit tower will be constructed.

As part of these measures, the building will be partially scaffolded. In addition to this visual impairment, the construction works could temporarily cause further inconveniences (e.g. noise, dust, building site traffic).

We are trying our best to limit the discomfort and to render your stay at the Academy as pleasant as possible. Our conferences will not be affected by construction works. We hope for your understanding and apologize for any inconvenience. We wish you a pleasant stay at the Academy.

Race and Ethnicity in Africa and Europe

September 30 to October 1, 2022

In cooperation with the Center for Maghrib Studies at Arizona State University

INVITATION

Race and racism are deeply complex notions in Africa and Europe historically and contemporarily, as they are in other parts of the world. For a long time, scholars have insisted that notions of racism have been exported from Europe to Africa. Yet, recent research shows a more complex development. The racial hegemony of “whiteness” and the dispossession of minorities in Africa not only preceded the Western conceptualization of race and racism but also emerged before these analytic discourses came to exist in Western Europe. Even so, there are several parallels between Africa and Europe in the themes and arguments pertaining to the nature of being racially marginalized or victimized by racism.

Our conference aims at debating similarities and differences of racial concepts in Africa and Europe. Furthermore, it analyzes the history of transfer and interconnection between the two regions. As a result, we hope for new insights in the development of the concepts of race and racism.
